NIGERIAN-BRITISH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Nigerian-British Chamber of Commerce (NBCC) was established in 1977 to promote collaboration between the Nigerian Private sector and its counterpart in Britain. The following are the Primary objectives of the Chamber:

- (i) To maximise trade between Nigeria and the United Kingdom through a regular exchange of information among its members.
- (ii) To advise the governments of both countries on matters pertaining to bilateral trade relations.
- (iii) To advise the members of the Chamber on opportunities and problems, legislative and others, arising from the pursuit of trade between Nigeria and the United Kingdom.
- (iv) To ensure effective policy advocacy through our membership of the National Association of Chambers of Commerce, Industry, Mines and Agriculture (NACCIMA)

What the Chamber does for its members

Members of the Chamber have free access to, and profit from, the following activities of the organisation:

- (a) Organising of conferences and seminars addressed by leading authorities in different fields, affording members to be informed and discuss current key issues affecting Nigerian-British trade.
- (b) Representing members' interests to all relevant government authorities
- (c) Organising trade missions.
- (d) Providing information and market intelligence service on Nigeria-UK trade through the Chamber's regular publications e.g. Tradelinks Magazine published quarterly.
- (e) Providing access to library and information data bank.
- (f) Publication of the bi-monthly Newsreport on business, trade and legislative issues that are of interest to Nigeria-British business relations as well as Chamber members: and reporting new developments within member companies, and business and employment opportunities of interest to members.

Membership of NBCC

There are about 400 corporate members of the Chamber. They range from virtually the giant manufacturing and commercial enterprises in Nigeria, through medium size service companies to professional practising firms interested in or involved with the Nigerian-British business activities.
